

ABOUT ME.

Carl Damour, MBA

Managing Partner

Carl is often jet-setting around Alberta and Canada for both personal and business purposes. Carl is a seasoned executive leader with over three decades of professional experiences in paramedicine, health professional education, regulation, and health system accreditation.

Carl holds a Master of Business Administration in innovation and global business as well as many other academic credentials. He is trained in change management and certified in lean, six sigma and as a professional investigator.

His diversified executive skillset combined with his business acumen makes him a force to be reckoned with, and his expertise is often sought by provincial, national, and international clients who wish to execute impactful corporate strategies.

Carl is the founder and CEO of MorFokus Consulting Inc. His strategic consulting expertise has historically focused on driving stronger corporate governance, enhancing regulatory compliance, and elevating service and product quality.

He holistically partners with the C-suite and their team to devise customized business solutions that achieve 'real' results. His innovative strategies have ushered corporations in overcoming bottlenecks, in accelerating processes, in reducing waste, and in augmenting corporate safety, risk management and revenues.

Carl shares his expertise and collaborates with other executives as a Board member. He currently serves as a Board member for the Alberta Paramedic Association and provincial representative with the Paramedic Association of Canada.

Carl's honors have included an invitation to speak at the 2022 Arab Health and being recognized for his many years of dedicated public service through the award of the Queen Elizabeth II's Platinum Jubilee Medal.
